No. 2.

EDMUND H. DEAS.

EDMUND H. DEAS.

There is no young man in South Carolina, and to the many hundred delegates who attend the National Republican Presidential Conventions, better known than Mr. Edmund H. Deas, who was born in Georgetown, S. C., June 12, 1855. He is a self made young man and highly thought of by all who know him. He was nominated for Congress in 1882, '84, and '90, and counted out each time. In 1883, he was appointed postmaster of his town and was defeated for confirmation by the democrats. He was appointed Deputy Internal Revenue Collector of the Third Division. He has been a delegate to every Republican National Convention since 1884. In 1888 he was a strong Sherman supporter and an original McKinley supporter in 1896. Mr. Deas is being strongly urged for a representative place in his State, which will not be vacant until next January, as President McKinley will permit all incumbents to serve out their term of office.

Mr. Deas is popular with all classes, irrespective of party in his State.

One characteristic about Mr. Deas, he is a man who appreciates a true friend. He has made many appointments of men and women from his State. The people of Darlington, South Carolina, recognized in Mr. Deas a man of nerve and possessing great political sagacity. He doesn't know what fail is. He is a man of honesty and integrity, and is supported by not only the representatives of his district, but by nearly all of the county municipal officers of about ten or twelve counties and cities in the northeast section of South Carolina. The territory he formerly patrolled as revenue officer; especially of his city, where all the business and commercial men have given him letters of indorsement, including the Mayor and ex-Mayor of Darlington.

WE NEED FORCE.

The recent verdict of the jury in the Jones vs. Brunhaus civil rights suit that was tried in the upper branch of the Police Court, teaches us a wholesome lesson. The colored people in this city are peculiarly situated, more so than in any other city of the United States, east of the Mason and Dixon's line. In some of those states the negro is a political factor and his vote is sought after by parties of different political complexions. He can cause laws to be enacted that he cannot force in such states where his vote, if cast, is not counted, hence such laws that would guarantee his political rights will not or cannot be passed.

If it is the desire of our fellow citizens, in the District of Columbia to invade the domestic tranquility of the opposite race, something other than forced legislation must be resorted to.

How then shall we commend ourselves to the thoughtful consideration and respect of those of the opposite race who possess all this world's goods?

First. We must possess that which other people want.

Second. We must be able to do what the white people can do.

When we are able to buy and sell, supply our markets with such produce that will sustain life, we can then command. If we possess nothing, how can we expect to deprive other people of what they have accumulated by industry and perseverance? If we are learned in law, and can command the respect of our courts and judges, we will be sought after. Greater the power any object is, the more it will draw. We must show by contact that we are equal to any emergency. Not only in the art and sciences, but in every branch of industry. If we are ejected from public or private inns of places of public amusement it is evident that we do not possess that force of character and necessary requirements which command respect and the anxiety on the part of other people to possess.

We must be able to do what other people do and possess that which other people want. Some white people are foolish enough to believe that they are superior in flesh to his black sister and brother. The same God who made the white man made the black man, the red or the yellow man. There may be different ingredients in the body of these different nationalities, which, perhaps, tend to create different characteristics.

The refined negro is the equal of the white man. Human beings go through the same polishing process as some of the best marble that grows.

A substance that is dug up in its crude state is distasteful to our eyes until it goes through the polishing process. It will only be a question of time before the white man sees his own folly. The same mother who produced the white man, produced the negro. Why then should we worry?

The day for a just retribution is fast approaching, and mother earth from which we sprung is ready to receive, the high and low, and rich and poor.

THE KINDERGARTEN.

This new departure in the instruction of our youths is to be commended by all who are interested in educational work in the District of Columbia. The graduation of the first class in the kindergarten is a harbinger of a new era. It serves as a substitution of the mother in everything that is educational; it is moral, it inspires religious reverence. It sprouts the young plant and makes the initiatory steps toward respectability and honor. Let us insist upon a kindergarten annex to the schools.

Let us help the children—old folks can take care of themselves. The exercises of the class of kindergarten which graduated last Monday night deserve recognition and should be encouraged.

LYNCH GETS ONE.

From The Jackson Reporter.
John R. Lynch, by use of his influence, has caused the appointment of Dr. Miller, colored, on the Board of Pension Examiners at Yazoo City, Miss. Black eggs hatch slowly, but Lynch has helped one to hatch.

OUR REFORM SCHOOL.

Now that the agitation is ripe for the appointment of a colored woman on the trustee board of the reform school, there are several eminent women from whom the President can select, namely: Mesdames Francis, Richardson, Layton and Dyson. We are not at a loss for material. This matter should be urged for all it is worth.

Mr. Gaines, though somewhat unknown to us, and the people of this country, bears the stamp of a man. Our choice is otherwise, but should he be chosen to occupy the position he seeks there may be something to be thankful for.

Hon. J. P. Green is a profound lawyer, a close student, a keen observer, a true friend; a generous foe.

Pessimistic politicians are growing restless. They say that the country has gone to the "demolition pow wows." But he it is remembered that President McKinley promised, but the Tariff Bill first. When he signs that, we may hope for what we deserve.

The association of means and ideas seems to be the watchword. Associated money, associated interests, associated minds make civilization. The sooner all become associated, the better for our race.

One white man can put to flight ten negroes, two can put ten thousands to flight. Why? Because we are not together.

Maj. McKinley has promised to do right. We have no patience with those who are dissatisfied, simply because he is not in a hurry. The abiding faith which the negro has in the honesty of Maj. McKinley, will not be shaken simply because he takes his time. Certainly he will not forget his true and tried allies. And when he acts he will act sincerely, honestly, honorably and positively.

Great interest is being manifested by those of our race who are wanting high places. What about those who are occupying a place within the classified service and who, notwithstanding their uniform worthiness are kept down? If there is a principle involved, it applies to all.

The man who can say the proper thing at the proper time and say it rightly is a man.

Our white friends are afraid, lest they offend their opponents. No true man ever feared to offend those who are in the wrong. Hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may.

There is no trifling with the real interests of our race. Speak plainly. No palliation, no equivocation.

If the party is getting strong enough to stand without us and against us let get's some other party.

THE BEE.

THE BEE entered into its 16th year on last Saturday, as we briefly stated then. To the many thousands and readers of THE BEE who have stood by it through thick and thin; to the many thousands of patrons, including all classes of citizens, who have advertised in its columns we think you for your past confidence and support, and hope that our future course may commend ourselves to your continued support and consideration.

RECORDER CHEATHAM.

Mr. Cheatham is to be complimented for the manner in which he is arranging his office. The changes that he has made thus far were necessary and will no doubt be beneficial to the office over which he presides. Mr. Cheatham should not stop until he has made an entire change in the personal of his office. The last vestige of the Taylor regime should be removed, except Col. Schyer who is a good and reliable man.

Recorder Cheatham has shown nerve and executive ability in turning rascals out. Let the good work go on until the atmosphere is cleansed.

OUR NEW MINISTER TO HAYTI.

Mr. Wm. F. Powell of New Jersey was nominated on Tuesday for Minister to Hayti to succeed Smith of Virginia, a white democrat. Mr. Powell is a young man of education and influence in the State of New Jersey. President McKinley in appointing Mr. Powell, to represent this country abroad, recognizes a young man of ability and one who is deserving of recognition. THE BEE is confident that no man is any more deserving than Mr. Powell. He has been a staunch and consistent republican all his life and a strong political factor in the state of New Jersey. Mr. Powell is personally known to the Editor of THE BEE and prominent republicans in this county. President McKinley has made another good appointment.

THE RECORDER'S SPEECH.

The decoration day speech of Recorder of Deeds Cheatham which he delivered in North Carolina on May 31st was one of the best speeches that has ever been delivered by any representative of the race.

He pictured in glowing colors the great deeds of the colored soldier and the achievements of the race since emancipation.

His speech throughout was full of logic, eloquence and facts.

KINDERGARTEN TEACHERS.

The commencement exercises of the class of '97 of the Woman's League Kindergarten Training School were held Monday night in the People's Congregational Church on M street, between sixth and seventh street, northwest.

A large audience was present when, at 8 o'clock, the members of the class marched on the large stage and went through the evolutions of a grand march and received much applause.

At the conclusion of the march the graduates remained on the stage, where were also seated Dr. Shadd, Rev. Mr. Grimke, Mr. Cornish, Mrs. Anna B. Murray, Miss Bessie E. Cook, Miss Lavinia Waring, Miss Lucie E. Morten, Miss Clementine, Mrs. J. H. Smythe, Mrs. F. J. Fowler, and Miss Romana Hunt.

The exercises were opened with a prayer by Rev. Mr. Grimke, after which the class sang "Jesus Loves the Little Children" in a manner to win them the applause of an appreciative audience. The class also performed three kindergarten plays, "The Mower," "Ball Players" and "Lazy Jamie," ably assisted by Miss Roberta Quander, as soloist. Miss Bessie Fletcher of the class, read an essay on the kindergarten philosophy.

Mrs. Anna S. Cooper, chairman of the kindergarten committee, delivered the address to the class. She advised patience and application in all things, and that in teaching the young under their care the material things of this life not to neglect installing in their minds also the higher virtues of eternal life.

At the close of the exercises Dr. Shadd conferred the diplomas and certificates upon the graduates. The members of the class of '97 are: Blanche Bradford, Oceana E. Brooks, Dollie T. Bruce, Grace P. Campbell, Bessie Fletcher, Cora W. Green, M. R. Goines, Eliza C. Johnson, Gertrude May Lightfoot, Bessie Brown Moss, Susie R. Quander, F. Erma Richardson, Serena Spencer, Amanda F. Taylor, Hattie L. Thomas, Winifred Whipple, Susie L. Winkler and Julia Young.

We are sorry to say that the north does not agree with Miss Luckey. She is looking well but her room mate says she only weighs 99 pounds.

HE WILL REMAIN TWO MONTHS

From The Afro-American.
Hon. C. H. J. Taylor, ex-Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, has decided to settle down in Baltimore and hang out his shingle. Mr. Taylor is of the impression that, while we have a number of lawyers, there is room for another. Baltimore is a good field, and we trust the ex-Recorder will find it genial and fully up to his expectation.

DEMAND RECOGNITION.

WILL IT LAST?

For some time past leading colored women of the city have been seeking to have a colored woman installed as a member of the board of trustees of the Girl's Reform School, claiming that as the school is now given over entirely to the caring for the erring colored girls of the District, it is but right and proper that the colored population should be represented on the board.

A short time ago a committee of ladies waited upon Attorney General McKenna, asking him to make such an appointment to fill a vacancy which will soon occur. The Attorney General informed the ladies that he would inquire into the laws and learn the extent of his authority. On Saturday a committee consisting of Mrs. H. L. Bailey and Miss Merritt, principal of the Garnet School, called on the Attorney General and presented a petition signed by 2,000 colored women of the city, asking for representation on the board by the appointment of Mrs. Helen A. Cook.

It was set forth in the petition that: "We are strongly convinced that if one or two colored women, well-known in the community for their useful life, benevolent disposition, strong desire to ameliorate the condition of all classes of unfortunate, influenced by a proper sense of race pride and by class sympathy, women whose upright virtuous living furnishes a guarantee of their disposition to have all do right, were selected by you as trustees, helpers in this great Christian work, this Girl's Reform School would grow in usefulness and become different from what it is at present—a gloomy, undeveloped, penal pretext for reform and improvement."

"We feel it as a case of taxation without representation," said Mrs. Bailey yesterday. "The board of trustees of the Reform School is composed entirely of white persons at the present time, and the teachers are white also. The colored population of the District is a better system could be inaugurated at the school if a person of the same race as the inmates were brought into contact with them. At present all the girls in the school are associated together without regard to the degrees of their offense or crime. The totally bad and girls who have erred but slightly are thrown together without reserve. This evil we wish to correct also."

Mrs. Cook is the wife of Mr. John F. Cook, one of the most prominent men of the city. She is in every way fitted for the position on the board of trustees by virtue of the number of years she has been associated with charitable institutions in the city, and there is not a dissenting voice among the colored population against her appointment as a trustee.

A POPULAR APPOINTMENT.

From The Kansas City Observer.
We commend the appointment of Hon. H. P. Cheatham of North Carolina for Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, and would like to see some of Missouri boys get something, as we are a factor of the party.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. A GREAT CURSE.

Protection Enervates Industries and Debauches Politics.

The Whole System Severely Arraigned by Franklin Pierce—With Free Raw Materials Our Machines Made Goods Would Soon Capture the World—Increasing Cost of Government—Mad Protection Riot Will Soon Be Over.

The principal speaker at the annual dinner of the New England Free Trade league, held on May 8, was Mr. Franklin Pierce, of New York. He handled his subject without gloves. He said in part as follows:

"Not only are the farmers beginning to appreciate the truth that protection robs them and their families, but our manufacturers, as the products of their looms exceed the demand of the home market, are understanding that a protective tariff, especially upon their raw material, is against their interests."

"The present population of the world is about 1,400,000,000, and only 400,000,000 use machinery at all. The rest do their work by rude tools guided by the hands, and we, the Yankee nation, who have revolutionized the world by our inventions, who use machinery to a greater extent than any other people, we refuse to allow the raw material which these 1,000,000,000 of non-machine using people create, to enter our ports in exchange for machine-made products, except upon the payment of excessive duties, while the more intelligent of our manufacturers are clamoring for free raw material and saying: 'Give us free raw material, and we will conquer the markets of the world.'"

"Instead of seeking the markets of the world, employing millions of men now lying idle, making the margin of profits less but the output several times greater than at present, getting thereby a steady market and continued service for our laboring classes, our trusts and combinations are hiring their competitors to close their factories and throw tens of thousands of laboring men out of employment."

"We have only to get freedom of trade and we can capture the markets of the world in many lines. What the Englishman is to the German, the American is to the Englishman, and just as the German is crying out against competition with the machine-made goods and high priced labor of England, just so would England cry out against competition with the machine-made goods and the high-priced labor of America, were duties upon all raw materials removed."

"We Americans walk faster, talk faster, work faster, do everything faster than any other people on the face of the earth. A people of the greatest natural vigor, and the greatest enterprise in the world, we have pampered our life and emasculated our strength and largely impaired the virility of our national life by a protective tariff. Manliness asserts its mastery in the same way in manufacturing as it does in every walk of life. The men in professions who ask no favors, but get out upon the dusty arena and fight for a lead, are the men who gain strength by every effort. Give us ten years of free trade, and we would capture from England one-fourth of her vast trade. Give us 20 years of free trade, and we will lead the world as exporters."

"The protective system has debauched public men and corrupted public life. Give any body of men, however pure, the power to take $100,000,000 from the pockets of the millions and transfer it to the pockets of a few men through an act of legislation and you have created a corrupting power which will destroy the virtue and the patriotism of that body of men."

"We shall never get rid of the evils which I have described until every dollar raised by taxation is paid into the national treasury; until we stop entirely this practice of allowing the right of government to tax property to be used for the purpose of allowing the manufacturer to prohibit importations, form trusts and rob our people of hundreds of millions of dollars each year."

"The remedy is in direct taxation. Every man has a right to know exactly what he pays toward the expenses of government, and direct taxation is the only means of stopping the lavish expenditure of public money."

"For a period of ten years between 1791 and 1800 inclusive, with a tariff of 8 1/2 per cent. upon foreign imports, and at the very time when we were going to the great expense of establishing our government, the cost of government was only $18.68 per capita for the ten years. From 1851 to 1860 inclusive, under a tariff for revenue only, the cost of government was only $21.85 per capita for the ten years. From 1871 to 1880 inclusive the actual running expenses of government had risen to $136.41 per capita, more than six times the amount required under a tariff for revenue only, and during the last ten years the cost of government has been steadily increasing."

"As a nation we can stand this lavish expenditure of the people's money, but we can never stand the luxuries, the inequities, the lack of patriotism which great wealth, quickly acquired, is sure to bring."

"We can be robbed by a protective tariff and still live, but when the robber takes the money and buys special legislation and turns it over to campaign committees to buy votes, we are the very life of free government is sold. Nations do not go down to death in the momentous sweep of battle. They rather die from the poison which the lobbyist and the vote buyer infuse into the body politic."

"The mad riot of protection will soon be over. The evidences of the revolution which shall destroy it are upon every hand. Its growth has been an evidence of what self-interest and audacity and effrontery can accomplish in against the people not united by any bonds save those of the public welfare."

A PRETTY JUNE WEDDING.

MISS LILLIE WELCH AND DR. CURTIS UNITE—SOCIETY OUT IN STYLE.

One of the most beautiful weddings eye hath ever saw, and perhaps the harbinger of the many to occur during the "month of flowers," was that of Miss Lillian D. Welch, one of Washington's favorites, to Dr. W. P. Curtis of St. Louis, Mo.

Her home was a perfect bower of roses, ferns and palms. Promptly at 5 o'clock the wedding party entered the parlors to the strains of Men. Wed.
March and formed in front of a background of lofty palms. Between the party and guests was stretched white ribbon, which was removed after the ceremony.

The bride was beautifully attired in pure white, while the groom wore the conventional black suit. Miss Georgine Kelly of Baltimore acted as first bridesmaid.

The receiving party were the mother and sisters of the bride, Miss Millie Gibbs, Babe Sommerville, Mammie and Mattie Williams, Daisy Beckley, Mrs. Geo. Williams, the bride of a few days.

The bride was given away by Dr.
John K. Frances, Dr. F. Grimkie officiating.
The presents were numerous and handsome; every conceivable space being occupied by them.

HORN, THE TAILOR.

Just look at Michael O'Leary butting his brains out. He read THE BEE last week and saw where John O'Day and his wife were at a reception with new clothes on, made at Horn's the tailor.
He has his clothes made elsewhere and has now become displeased. It is his own fault and no one is to blame but himself. What do you think of his action? Mr. Horn asks you to give a trial. He makes no misrepresentation to you. If you go elsewhere you may expect to be displeased. This mode was not given a guarantee. The tailor from whom he bought his suit would dare not to give him a guarantee.
Mr. Horn can give you a guarantee and will do so if you are not satisfied. Do you want a new summer suit? Do you want a full dress summer suit? If so, call and see Mr. Horn at his place of business, 637 F street, northwest.

Some few days ago Mr. Horn purchased several hundred new patterns.
He can now make you a new summer suit and please you. If you are not satisfied ask D. B. McCary, the general Cashier at the Capital Savings Bank, Mr. McCary will vouch for what THE BEE says of this great clothing house. Mr. Horn makes no mistake when he says that he can give you an imported suit made to order for $15.
He is the man all honest people should deal with. They will get the worth of their money. It is useless to throw our money away these hard times.
The money market is tied up, and if you don't get the worth of what you pay for, it is useless to buy. You can always find in Mr. Horn's store any kind of goods you want. These are first-class articles. Do you want a wedding suit that will cost you a fancy price elsewhere? To the young man or old man who is going to be married, study economy and go to Horn. Do so at once. Don't be like the man above, who bought clothes elsewhere and is now butting his brains out.

GRAND OPENING.

JUN 13.

The Notley Hall and Glymont Excursion Company.

L. J. WOOLLEN, General Manager, Office, 524 10th St. N. W.

SEASON OF 1897.

I wish to call your attention to THE NOTLEY HALL AND GLYMONT EXCURSION COMPANY, of which I am General Manager.

In 1888 I opened Collinwood Beach, where everybody, who conducted themselves in an orderly manner, were made to have a good time. I continued this resort until 1893, when other parties who were entirely inexperienced and incapable of running a steamboat or excursion business came in and with their opposition, cut the business up so much that no money could be made by either the owners of the boats or grounds, or the parties who chartered them.
They also had a very many accidents and often disaster.

After waiting three years and seeing the business so badly managed, have formed a company which is backed by ample capital to run the excursion business again. We have the

STEAMER MATTANO,

which has been entirely rebuilt and enlarged with Forward Promenade deck, and fitted expressly for the Excursion Season of 1897, and the Notley Hall and Glymont Excursion Grounds which will be fitted up with all kinds of amusements.—Bowling alley, King of Horses, Swings, Shooting Gallery and everything usually found at first-class Excursion Resort. The Notley Hall Dancing pavilion is the finest and largest on the Potomac River. It is my intention to run this business in a first-class manner and make money for the charter parties as well as the owners. I can say with pleasure, and without fear of contradiction, that during the six years of my experience I never disappointed a Charter party or caused an excursion to be postponed on account of not keeping my promise, or not having the boat ready. I have never had an accident on my boat, or grounds during the time I was managing the business. I ask your patronage in the future, and promise to give you satisfaction and guarantee the best of order on the boat and grounds.

Special inducements given to churches and other societies giving excursions. For particulars apply to

THE RECORDER'S OFFICE.

Recorder's Cheatham has certainly relieved the President of the appointment of Mr. H. Y. Arnett, son of Bishop Arnett, in his office. Mr. Arnett, appreciates what recorder Cheatham has done and will no doubt fill the position to which he may be assigned with credit to himself which will not be comparable of deeds, as it requires a person of experience and practice to fill this position. Recorder Cheatham means to conduct his office on a high business-like and moral basis and the rules that he has laid down precludes clerks and other employees from walking up and down the halls during recess. Recorder Cheatham means to adopt other rules which will be beneficial to the office.
Heretofore lawyers have been invading the rooms of the copyists thus disturb them in their work. He means to remedy this practice which will not only be a benefit to the clerks but relieve the office of embarrassment.
These are Recorder Cheatham's ideas which are highly indorsed by the most prominent members of the bar. The recorder has his eyes open to business and the improvement of his office. He may also decide to have a female comparer of deeds. This is dorsed. He means to protect his female clerks as well as to give others to understand that his office will be above suspicion.

Already members of the bar have begun to compliment the recorder for the improvements that he has made and is continuing to make. No one mourns the removal of Henry Johnson. He should have been gone long ago. Others have seen their mistake in retaining him. Recorder Cheatham has made no mistake thus far and he can beat any man in public life making changes. He has a democratic idea of managing a public office and a republican principle in his appointments of men and women. There are more changes to follow which are absolutely necessary for the benefit of his office.

OUR NORMAL vs. HOWARD
GRADUATES.

THE BEE respectfully calls the attention of Trustees Bruce, Cornish, Shadd and Terrell to the injustice and imposition that is practiced upon the graduates of the Howard University Normal school. Our trustees are not to blame for this imposition.
Under the rules of the trustees of the normal school of the public schools, our graduates are compelled to go through a two years course before they are entitled to teach, while the graduates of Howard University are only required to attend one year and place them upon the same footing as graduates of the public school. Is this fair? Let our trustees look into this and decide for themselves.

EDMUND H. DEAS.

No young man has the respect and confidence of his people more than Mr. Deas.

The republicans of Darlington, S.
C., are waiting patiently for the appointment of Mr. Deas to a representative position. Below is what some of the leading republicans of the State say of him:

Beaufort, S. C., March 1, 1897.
The President, Sir:—

I take great pleasure in commending to your favorable consideration the Hon. E. H. Deas, of Darlington, S. C.
Mr. Deas is an applicant for the position of Collector of the Port at Charleston, S. C., for which he is capable and has the courage to perform the duties of the same with credit to himself and the Government.

Mr. Deas has been an active republican and has been a delegate to very near every National Convention, if not all, in the last twenty years, and I have no doubt he is personally known to you, as he has been one of the most active workers in accordance with Mr.
Hanna's wishes in the last convention, also in accordance with your wishes in the convention eight years ago, and went down with the Ohio's Son, who is now Secretary of State.

I feel assured that a favorable consideration for the above mentioned office, or any other office that you may deem best that would be commensurate with his ability and fidelity to the republican party, would meet with approval of all the republicans of the regular organization.

I have the honor to be, your most obedient servant,
(Signed) ROBERT SMALLS,
Vice-President State Ex. Committee, delegate to the late National Convention from the State at large.

Washington, D. C., April 10th, '97.
Hon. William McKim,
President U. S. A.

Mr. President:—
I take great pleasure in commending to your favorable consideration Hon.
E. H. Deas of South Carolina. His fidelity to the party and his energy and activity in political work have made him one of the most efficient and prominent leaders of the party in our state.

He is reliable and trustworthy in all matters and I know of no one in the state more deserving by reason of his service to the party. He is highly respected by all who know him and even his political opponents will bear willing testimony to his character and ability.

No man in the State rendered better service in the campaign that preceded the National Convention and for the result in South Carolina, I relied in a great measure on his assistance.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed) E. A. WEBSTER,
Member National Committee, S. C.

SEWING MACHINE CO.,
CLEVELAND, O.

Some people make a study of grievance. An industrious person has no time to lose, looking on the dark side of life.

D.E.—Personal happiness that is worth having must be based on the right feeling, right doing and generous impulses, thoughtfulness of others and forgetfulness of one's self.

E.F.—An impetuous or impulsive person is very apt to look too far ahead of himself, and by so doing pass by nearer objects which would be of great service to him.

A quarrelsome woman makes an unhappy home and a stubborn man makes a mean husband.

E.V.—Women who are fortunate enough to have silk-lined skirts and silk petticoats should not delight in wearing them up, when it is absolutely unnecessary. Fine underwear is appropriate, but I dislike to see it so flashy, as to attract attention.

Ella.—Don't be guilty of making a special effort after effect, but be ambitious, and do the duty that lies nearest you, then you will succeed.

L.M.—It is not necessary to leave down to look for work, when the same kind of work can be obtained here.
Work need be ashamed of only when it is poorly done.

Nellie.—If there is anything I dislike, it is, to visit a home where the men and women are so different.
The men are so different from the women; while the lazy daughters sit at home and do nothing.

Self-respecting girl will allow her parents to support her, after they have reared her from infancy to womanhood.

Mother.—Old time names such as Martha, Maria or Susan are the latest for naming the babies.

J.T.—I don't approve of a girl corresponding with a man whom she has never seen. Personal appearance has a great deal to do with one's disposition and since we can only judge from books, what one's disposition is, we should certainly see a person before entering into a correspondence.

Graduate.—There are yet ten graduates of class '96, of the Normal school to be appointed, after these ten have been taken care of, then it will be a who shall and who will, between those who did not get places of class '94 and '95.

Lulu.—The Normal school class this year is composed of artists, poets, eccentricities, musicians, and every talent that goes to make up an interesting class.

A.B.—The woman who ignores her own brothers and sisters on the account of out side sentiment is very foolish. Some people manifest too much interest in others family affairs, which is for no good.

Mamie.—Difference of opinion is no cause of offense, but downright contradiction is a violation of good manners, still when one's knows a thing, I don't blame him for sticking to his opinion.

S.S.—Until we become more determined in all ideas and think more deeply into a matter before undertaking it, will our efforts in the right direction ever be in vain.

F.O.—Don't be sulky because you imagine yourself neglected or think your friend is in love with some other girl, simply because he is seen in the company of other ladies. The man who can only visit one lady's house cannot be thought very well of by others.

Teacher.—You should maintain your dignity and self-respect by practicing what you teach your scholars daily. Those whom you think are your inferiors are certainly your superiors, as far as good manners and self-respect are concerned.

It is not clever to find out one's family affairs by "pumping", neither is it wise to confide in too many friends.

Hypocrites are not confined only to religion, they are everywhere; people shaming a culture they are far removed from, or teaching something they do not themselves understand, are certainly hypocrites of the deepest dye.

Jollie.—O, yes, I believe a woman can repair a man and for that reason she should be studied well before marrying. Some men are so badly made up until they don't pay for repairing.
Of course he should be repaired or reformed before marriage, if not,
I think, it would be rather a difficult task afterwards.

Rusticator.—Wrappers are not just the thing for single ladies. Lawns and gingham, which can be had from eight to twelve cents and much higher, per yard, will make an appropriate morning dress, with plain skirts and waist with a ribbon or leather belt; then you are ready for the lawn or even a country morning drive. Keep the wrapper for your bed room.

The woman who understands the value of personal neatness, will certainly have to refuse some of her admirers, while her plainer sisters are left, even without one offer.

Gertrude.—Don't be manish or masculine, for women will abhor you and men hate you.

Lily.—It is foolish to see you so jealous over that boy. No one wants him. He is not of age and doesn't know his own mind.

The fashion will be discussed next week, but you will not be amiss, if you have placed two small frills around the bottom of your french organdy.

UNCLE EBEN'S INDIGNATION.

The insidious logicians
Who smatter negro lore;
Have made poor Uncle Eben seem
A somewhat stupid bore.
Encouraged by the charity
Of persons they offend;
A stoical philosophy,
Through him they would extend.

The colored sage however, hopes,
To bid a last adieu,
To inquisitive intruders;
Who seek an interview,
For Uncle Eben, widely known
By sayings trite and terse, Indignantly repudiates
The dialectic verse.

SECRET ORDERS

MR. MCKINLEY'S INDUCTION INTO MASONRY.

About a fortnight ago the Masonic Lodge of Winchester, Va., in which President McKinley was made a Master Mason, invited him to visit the city as a guest of the lodge, promising to receive and entertain him with full honors. Abner Wallahan, a member of the lodge, gives an interesting account of the manner in which the President became attached to the Fraternity. It was in the spring of 1865, at the close of the war, when McKinley was stationed at Winchester. He was going through the hospital in company with the Surgeon in charge, when he noticed that the Surgeon was kind to some wounded Confederate prisoners. After tenderly dressing their wounds the Surgeon gave the Confederates some money that they might procure something which was needed for their comfort. Mr. McKinley questioned the Surgeon as to reason for his kindness to the captives, and was told that it was because they were brother Masons. The young soldier was so much impressed with the incident that he expressed a wish to join the fraternity. And a special dispensation being obtained for the purpose, he was initiated, passed and raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason in the Winchester Lodge.—From the Washington Star of June 5, 1897.
